A REAL CHRISTMAS TREAT

The St. Ursula Academy Vocal Ensemble, a twelve-member select ensemble choral group (SUAVE), will entertain the RESC at the Christmas Luncheon. St. Ursula students, grades 10 through 12, compete to be a member of this select choral group which was formed in 1995.

Since competing in various show choir competitions starting in 1995, SUAVE has won many awards including numerous First Place Trophies with consistent ratings of "Superior" in the High School Show Choir Division at Nashville, Louisville, Sandusky, Gatlinburg, Pigeon Forge and Cincinnati. This is just a sampling of the many competitions in which SUAVE has received first place awards. (Continued on page 2.)

SAUVE

In 1999, 2001 and 2004 the ensemble participated in performances at Carnegie Hall in New York City. Again, they've been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall in a massed choir performance of the Mozart Requiem under the direction of Maestro Griffith.

The group owes their success to Kathy Backherms who has been at the school since 1989. She is a graduate of Mount Saint Joseph College and the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. One of her hobbies is composing musicals for high school and parish groups in the Cincinnati-Dayton area.

One of her most important achievements is founding the ensemble called SAUVE. It's more than an acronym - its a group that makes music that is sweet and pleasant and oh so suave.
