Meeting Highlights

Walter Glas is a native of Cincinnati. He has lived here all his life except for two years during WWII and for two years in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1951 as a Civil Engineer. Walter has worked in the construction industry in structural design, sales, and project management. He has had a lifetime interest in sports, particularly in baseball. He began as a spectator with his father at the age of five. He played knothole, high school and college baseball and later coached knothole baseball. He still plays senior softball.

You will notice that we have gone back to first class mail with this newsletter. Many of the members were receiving their newsletters late, even though most were getting them on time. When you send mail third class bulk rate you are at the mercy of your local postmaster and the carrier that delivers your mail. First Class mail should help to alleviate this problem.

The February meeting was great. I'll probably never get to Australia or New Zealand but we sure enjoyed Harold and Audre Rice talking about it. My wife even took a day's vacation from work to attend this one.

The ESC Awards Banquet was held on February 20. Art Kupferle received the 2003 Lifetime Achievement Award to the Engineering and Scientific Professions. We are very fortunate to have his as an RESC board member and treasurer.

See you at the March 18 meeting.

Your Help Is Needed

Tall Stacks will be arriving again in October, 2003. Volunteers are needed now, through the end of December, to assemble promotional packets. If you are interested in helping out and want additional information, call Bob Wilzbach at 513-481-9433. You can also call Sue Leibrock at the Tall Stacks office, 513-621-8255. Help is needed in both daytime and evening hours, for any amount of time you can spare.

Golf Joke

One fine day, Jim and Bob are out golfing. Jim slices his ball deep into a wooded ravine. He grabs his 8-iron and proceeds down the embankment into the ravine in search of his ball. The brush is quite thick, but Jim searches diligently and suddenly he spots something shiny. As he gets closer, he realizes that the shiny object is in fact an 8-iron in the hands of a skeleton lying near an old golf ball.

Jim excitedly calls out to his golfing partner, "Hey, Bob, come here, I got trouble down here."

Bob comes running over to the edge of the ravine and calls out, "What's the matter, Jim?"

Jim shouts back in a nervous voice, "Throw me my 7-iron. You can't get out of here with an 8-iron!"

PLAN TO PLAY WITH RESC GOLF GROUP. WE START IN MAY

Thanks, Roy Pryse

Another Golf Joke

(Eds: It must be getting close to Spring.)

One mid-afternoon on a sunny day, a golfer teed up his ball. After a few practice swings, he steps up to his ball and gets ready to drive the first hole.

Just before he swings, a woman in a wedding gown comes running up from the parking lot. She's got tears streaming down her face. Just as she reaches the raised tee, she screams out, "I can't believe it! How could you do that?"

The golfer calmly takes a swing and drives the ball straight down the middle of the fairway. He looks at the woman, as he puts his driver back in his bag and says, "Hey... I said only if it's raining!"

Harold and Audre Rice show off their collection of items from New Zealand and Australia

Harold and Audre Rice receive certificate of appreciation from George Gore
